

AUSTRALIAN AND OTHER NATIONALS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES UNDER EXECUTIVE ORDER 408 ARE ALLOWED TO ENTER THE PHILIPPINES WITHOUT A VISA FOR INITIAL STAY OF 30 DAYS

As governed by Executive Order No. 408 and the subsequent executive issuances amending it, the Department of Foreign Affairs maintains a list of eligible countries whose nationals may avail of visa-free entry to the Philippines provided that they are holders of passports valid for at least six (6) months beyond the contemplated period of stay. They must also possess return tickets to their country of origin or outward-bound tickets to their next country of destination.

Nationals from the following countries are allowed to enter the Philippines without a visa for an initial stay of thirty (30) days with a return flight ticket of not more than 30 days:
